The Roots N Blues BBQ Festival Announces First Round of Artists for 2015

COLUMBIA, MO- Thumper Entertainment releases the first round of artists for The 2015 Roots N Blues N BBQ Festival presented by U.S. Cellular. This is the 9th year for the 3-day festival held in Stephens Lake Park. In 2014, the Festival attracted 27,000+ fans from 43 states and 4 countries.

Headlining in 2015 will be 6-time Grammy award winning electric Blues pioneer Buddy Guy, multi-genre singer songwriter Lucinda Williams, and acoustic Bluegrass instrumental quintet Punch Brothers. Other artists include singer songwriter Robert Earl Keen, Americana Blues band The Wood Brothers, American Delta Blues guitarist Tab Benoit, and Country Rock band Lucero. Also appearing are gospel influenced Mike Farris, Junior Brown with his steel guitar styling's, and Here Come the Mummies, the funk band known for appearing onstage in mummy attire.

Additional artists to be announced soon, stage schedule to follow.

The festival will take place from Friday, September 25 to Sunday, September 27 at Stephens Lake Park. Festival Early Bird Tickets will be available at a discounted rate through April 30th online and at The Roots N Blues N BBQ box office located at Vinyl Renaissance & Audio at 16 North 10th Street.
